We needed that vacation
To find ourselves again
We had to rediscover
What we'd lost back when
The brochure promised beaches
Romance made just for us
Long walks in the moonlight
The place was beautiful
When we checked in
We found what we needed

(Chorus)

We stayed wrapped up in a blanket for three days
Turned into two young lovers
As we hungered for each other
We laughed we cried
We slipped so far away
Somebody said it rained

We got lost in conversation
We didn't need for nothing else
We found something worth saving
And a fire we'd never felt
The world outside just disappeared
We broke it down to us
We left there understanding
What it means to really love
And every now and then
We remember that weekend

(Repeat Chorus 2x)

Somebody said it rained
Oh it rained
Ahh
All day all night
We were lost inside
In a blanket for three days
We slipped so far away
Ahh
All day all night

We were lost inside
