"Invincible"

Oh, tied to this earth like a dog on a chain
People are pulling but I still remain
Invincible, invincible

He got in my face and spit on my back
What a tangled web we weave
There's all kinds of people
But people aren't kind
Forget about them
Just don't lose your mind

Oh take, take what you wanna take
And try to leave me alone
'Cos I was here before you
And I'll be here when you go

Oh, do what you can to get in my way
I watch you as you fall
I'll just stand back and bite my tongue
And watch you become
Invisible, invisible

Smiling as I watch you fail
I just love how weak you are
You will fall by the wayside
While I just might be a star

Oh take, take what you wanna take
And try to leave me alone
'Cos I was here before you
And I'll be here when you go

Oh, long have you followed me my little man
Only speak when I tell you you can
Don't even dare to look in my eyes
You'll crumble where you stand
Crumble where you stand
Crumble where you stand, yeah

Oh take, take what you wanna take
And try to leave me alone

'Cos I was here before you
And I'll be here when ya go
Take, take what you wanna take
And try to leave me alone
'Cos I was here before you
And I'll be here when you go

Invincible
Invincible
Invincible
Invincible
Invincible baby, invincible
Invincible baby, invincible
