"Later On"

Later on when you're crying
Later on when you're all alone
Looking for a nice quiet place to die in Later on, later on

Later on when your thoughts turn
To all the fires that you let burn
And all the times you could have said something
You turn your head and you don't say a thing

CHORUS:

Later on when it all is said and done
Later on when all your friends are gone
Later on you're gonna look back in shame
And it won't be long
No, it won't be long

Later on when you're lying
And you're talking to yourself
Looking for a space to say goodbye in
You'll still be looking for the easy way out

CHORUS

There will be only one thing left to rely on That'll be the one you forgot to try on Don't look to me for a shoulder to cry on It'll be as cold as the bed you die on

Later on when your heart bleeds
And all the bitterness fades
You wanna know what went wrong
Well you'll find out later on

CHORUS

Later on when it all is said and done
Later on when all your friends are gone
Later on when you're lookin' for a hand to greet you
And it won't be long
No, it won't be long

And it won't be long
No, it won't be long
Later on...
