Oh honey don't cry anymore
And I'll hold you so close to me
But you'll be sorry
It's so cruel and delicious
Tears don't mean anything to me

I'm leaving,
You're make believing,
That I'm here and I'm going to stay
But I'm not sorry
It's so cruel and delicious
There's just nothing really left to say

I know I'm the one who breaks the rules
How long are you going to play my fool?

You're bleeding,
It's easy feeding,
And I'll bleed every drop away
And now you're sorry
It's so cruel and delicious
I'll just find another fool to play

I know I'm the one who breaks the rules
How long are you going to play my fool?

I know I'm the one who breaks the rules
How long are you going to play my fool?
