World leader are treating power like pot,
Remaining addicts while the countries rot,
People on earth are conflicting their races,
Bombs are getting built before kids get there braces,
We look to the future and forget the past,
What about the present "NO ONE ASKED"

"Why"

We can not go to the outside, Poisones gases kill our inside, And before the moment we die, We wonder.

"Why do you pollute our minds with lies"?
"Why do you cover up when someone dies"?
"Why do you feed us your illusions"?
"Why do you create chemical solutions"?

"Why"

Religions clash,
And countries are unable,
To even be civilised at the UN table,
Into the countries instead of water,
People in body bags left from the slaughter,
And now a groom stands without his bride,
Because one country couldn't swallow its pride,

"Why"

We can not go to the outside, Poisones gases kill our inside, And before the moment we die, We wonder.

"Why do you pollute our minds with lies"?
"Why do you cover up when someone dies"?
"Why do you feed us your illusions"?

"Why do you create chemical solutions"?
