Did you say you're not ready yet?
This life's like a race there's no medal for second place
Did you say you were feeling lonely when I'm out on my own?
You could be with any fish in the sea
But you still chose, yea you still chose me

Stop by and say hi, sing me a lullaby
I'm loosing control of me, myself, and I
Yeah you can get by with your good looks and pride
It won't get you far you can run but you can't hide

Did you say you were getting sick?
Of swinging for the outside pitch (swing for me)
Did you say you were out of place?
Well this time, it's your turn to score the home game

Stop by and say hi, sing me a lullaby
I'm loosing control of me, myself, and I
Yeah you can get by with your good looks and pride
It won't get you far you can run but you can't hide

Does it feel like your falling from the sky?
Every time we look in each others eyes

Stop by and say hi, sing me a lullaby
I'm loosing control of me, myself, and I
Yeah you can get by with your good looks and pride
It won't get you far you can run but you can't hide
