Play the next song. No I wont move on to disposable regurgitation. Why should I feed your needs for a programmed sensation. Why should I want to play what you want to hear. I'm not here for you no matter what you say. Why should I justify your musical stereotypes why should we play fast enough for you to hurt yourselves today. Maybe I don't want to hurt your feelings but maybe I do, but I wouldn't be able to say anything if I was worried about offending each and every one of you. Why should I write about cigarettes and coffee, or glamorize my life for artistic integrity, or scream a SXE song or write so you can sing along when I would rather have a bag of chips and a slurpee. Play the next song.
