"High 5"

I saw her through the crowd,
She'd make a man feel proud,
If only she'd oblige.

Much to my despair,
He is standing over there,
Supposed to be her guy.

She looked at me wide eyed,
Those eyes I can't deny,
They make her feel alright.

He don't what he's got,
He's just a penny for a slot,
He'll be exposed tonight!

'Cause I've seen him play these games before,
She's not the only girl he's vouching for,
While he's out cheating on her and living lies,
His mates are standing around all smirks and high 5's!

Not, 1
Not, 2
But 3 times she makes me feel alive!

3 kisses for me and I know she's the marrying kind,
She can't take her eyes off me and he is wondering
why,
I'd give her everything and for him I'd throw in a high
five.

We made our way to the bar,
He watched us from afar,
There's nothing he can do!

He knows I know his secret,
And I'm not prepared to keep it,
Time to hear the truth !

I have to break the news,
The way I feel for you,

Is kinda ha ha ha haaha haaaa... oh yeea!
'Cause I've seen him play these games before,
She's not the only girl he's vouching for,
While he's out cheating on her and living lies,
His mates are standing around all smirks and high 5's !

Not, 1
Not, 2
But 3 times she makes me feel alive !

3 kisses for me and I know she's the marrying kind,
She can't take her eyes off me and he is wondering
why,
I'd give her everything and for him I'd throw in a high
five.

She grabs me by the hand into the cold night air..
I'm holding on to what they say that falling in love is fair..
I guess thats why he won't be giving any more high fives..
Because I'm going to make sweet love to her tonight...

Not 1
Not 2
But 3 times she makes me feel alive!

3 kisses for me and I know she's the marrying kind,
She can't take her eyes off me and he is wondering
why,
I'd give her everything and for him I'd throw in a high five.
