Baptized in a river of blood
The woe is broken, finally free
Tainted thoughts
Deceit and lies
My malice exterminates it all

Scars on your soul
Will never become whole

Succumb to the end
You won't escape
Destroying everything that's wrong, but in the end
You will just take everything from me

Justify the onslaught of all humanity
There is no way to keep me in control

Scars on your soul
Will never become whole

Succumb to the end
You won't escape
Destroying everything that's wrong, but in the end
You will just take everything from me

Everything from me

This life takes it all
Gives nothing back
A sinister intent unveils itself

Succumb to the end
You won't escape
Destroying everything that's wrong
In the end you will just Take everything from me
