You are way too sweet,
The smell of your perfume distracts me as I kiss your
cheek,
Hold on to my heart so softly.

Let me introduce you to love that's digital and true
As her voice cuts right through my ears,
Worrying's not the worst part.
My god she's coming in close,
It's those awkward beginnings that start to hold on,
Inhale and leave.

You are way too sweet,
The smell of your perfume distracts me as I kiss your
cheek,
Hold on to my heart so softly.
Anything you need,
I'll make it yours
I'll make you mine.
Take my hand please don't decline
Hold on to my heart so softly.

If you walk along my side
If you kiss me with your eyes
I'll believe that this could be it.
Stay still and take this all in The moment is right and the message is sent Out, read, & ignored.

You are way too sweet,
The smell of your perfume distracts me as I kiss your
cheek,
Hold on to my heart so softly.
Anything you need,
I'll make it yours
I'll make you mine.
Take my hand please don't decline
Hold on to my heart so softly.

And all along, I thought I never have the chance
Our bodies shaking as we're hand in hand
Hand in hand I tell myself

This just might work, this just might work

And all along, I thought I never had the chance
Our bodies shaking as we're hand in hand
I tell myself.
It just might work, it just might work.

Keep me in your mind
Between movie quotes and storylines
I'm calling up at 12 o'clock
To make sure you're still alive

You are way too sweet,
The smell of your perfume distracts me as I kiss your
cheek,
Hold on to my heart so softly.
Anything you need,
I'll make it yours
I'll make you mine.
Take my hand please don't decline
Hold on to my heart so softly.

Everything you need,
(Introduce you to love that's digital)
Take my hand don't decline.
Hold on to my heart so softly
(Promise things won't be so difficult for you)
(Moments passing now we're crashing down)
