I'll sing this loud so you can hear me
I'll sing it everywhere I go
So turn it up
And sing along, whoa

I pour my heart out on this paper
And pray to god that you're all pleased
And hope that one day you'll know
Exactly what I mean
(You'll know exactly what I mean)

I wanted to stay
But wanted to do away with all of it
But baby it's not the same
Hold on to your heart
Sit back, I'll explain

I'll hold on to all that I can for now
Well maybe I'm on the ground
But I won't give up
I always get up

They say there's a way to do it right
A perfect formula
It's something I haven't found
But I won't give up
I always get up

I sing it loud so you can hear me
Apparently I'm not loud enough
Cause all this shit is in slow motion
I can't think fast or fast enough

I'm starting to get sick
Write about drunk chicks
Falling in and out of love
Where did all the good songs go?
Oh, if you find one let me know

(Hold on to your heart
Sit back, I'll explain)

I'll hold on to all that I can for now
Well maybe I'm on the ground
But I won't give up
I always get up

They say there's a way to do it right
A perfect formula
It's something I haven't found
But I won't give up
I always get up

(Scream if you love it
Or hate it, you want it)

(Scream if you love it
Or hate it, you want it)

If our mistakes were bought and sold
Or tossed aside or turned to gold
Then all the fakes would lose control
Where's the heart at?
Where's the soul?

(Scream if you love it
Or hate it, you want it)

(Scream if you love it
Or hate it, you want it)

(Scream if you love it)

I'll hold on to all that I can for now
Well maybe I'm on the ground
But I won't give up
I always get up

They say there's a way to do it right
A perfect formula
It's something I haven't found
But I won't give up
I always get up

Oh, I won't give up
I always get up
