

Big Daddy Kinsey

"Tribute To Muddy Waters"

Visit "Tribute To Muddy Waters" on MotoLyrics.com

It was on a Sunday morning people, May first, nineteen hundred and eighty-three
It was on a Sunday morning people, May first, nineteen
hundred and eighty-three Well you know a news flash came on TV, people say we lost the best bluesman we ever had

His name was McKinley Morganfield, but the world
know him as Muddy Mississippi Waters
His name was McKinley Morganfield, but the world
know him as Muddy Mississippi Waters
Well just go on sleepin' Mud, because you live still deep in all our hearts

So sleep on Muddy, and God will get you a little rest Sleep on Muddy, and God will get you a little rest Well you now no one will ever be able to replace you, all we can do is keep your music alive

Keep on Mud.

Visit Big Daddy Kinsey page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.