Shaking stars
Press my open hands with yours
In a watertight embrace
But the floods of love
They come and break us up
Wash it all away

Cause I see you
Kissing your boyfriend
I swear I could feel it
So hard and

In my darkest of days
I keep you safe

I see you ditched your daughter
Now you give the orders
Lying through your teeth
Now she's crying in the back seat
Cracked lips, cracked... for water

I see you're scared
Cause you know my intentions
I don't blame you...
Cause it's not not time for friendship
Guess it's not time for friendship.

In my darkest of days...
In my darkest of ways
I keep you safe

I can't believe that I'm here with you
All my dreams and nightmares come true
