I was on your side
For it I lost mine
And now you don't feel it at all
You never ask, I never talk

Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
Cause every time I close my eyes, I'm alive

I can't help hurting you
(I'm trying to understand)
But God knows I don't want to (Nothing makes me more mad)
I feel myself losing control
Of all I love and all I know, so

Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
Cause every time I close my eyes, I'm alive

Well I see your face and it's unaffected,
But it's such a pretty place you live in,
Can I go there till my time ends,
I'm hanging on to every word you say.
No, I won't let you walk away,
I won't let you walk away

Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
Well, it's my last chance
To be one of the animals
