I lost so much to pain and pride,
To live a life full of lies
Stretch my heart to thin,
For a love that was broken,
And it's all because of me,
Trying to be something that I cannot be
The blame is all on me, the blame is all on me

(Chorus)

I don't want to see inside of me,
Afraid of what I'll see
Don't what to face the truth,
I'm nothing without you
Don't want to see inside of me,
Afraid of what I'll see
It's time I face the truth,
I'm nothing without you

You stretch your hand to save me
Rescued my dying soul,
You gave life from the grave
So I'll live forever more
Through your eyes I see,
What's hiding in me,
Letting it go

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

You know just what it's like to be me
You've seen the very best that I can be

(Vamp)

I need you, I need you
