[Chorus: repeat 2X]

I'm all about the beer, food, money, hoes

Tools, whips, chains, clothes

Gettin' all of the above and drinkin' brew 'til I plummet

And I can punch a rapper's teeth deep into they stomachs

[Verse 1]

It's the rap Jesus! Rockin' imitation time pieces

Every lines feces, you know the shit hit the greases

I only spit the grime greases

Walkin' across stage holdin' my penis

Pockets full of stolen Visas and pieces of paper with numbers from diseased up-skeezers

Pizza stains on my shirt, 'cause I stuck up a Little Caesars

I'm Filthy, Nasty, sick in the brain

Robbin' blind people, 'Cause now I'm into white caine(?)

I might blame the bottle, might blame the 'cid

But any way you look at it, my fuckin' brain is hit

A strange kid, a loud mouth, a shit talker

A backstabber, a bullshitter, a bitch stalker

An asshole, a lyin', cheatin', stealin'

Tell your lady she looks fat to fuckin' hurt her feelings

Swearin' that the chain is platinum, but its silver

And what about the mic?

You touch mine I'll kill ya

Everybody hit the ground!

It's like I'm spittin' rounds

Catch you feelin' it like hemorrhoids when they sittin' down

The flow that you can't with

Rappers get evicted

You all up on my dick, like your girlfriends favorite lipstick!

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

It's only 10a.m., I'm already brewed up

Step up to a 200 pound Pit, you gon' get chewed up

Last album blew yo nuts, this is the new stuff

From the screwed up cat

Beer belly and a crew cut

Dude what?

Any track you hand me I'ma scorch it

The white boy rollin singles at the wild orchid

I'll ask: Am I awkward?, Am I Different?

'Cause all I fuckin' crave is White Castles & Guinness

Every night Stank Breath he act a fool

Wake up saying I'll never drink again, then I crack a brew

I like speakin' foul and actin' rude

The type to sell you a Paradime C.D.

Break in your crib and yank it back from you

What's the problem? I was brought into this world

And I only like my mens and like girls who like girls

One Dollar to my name and I'm draped in (?)

Everybody 'round here sucks, that's precisely why I'm Solo!

[Chorus]
