You gave me that look across the table
At dinnertime
Your toes caress my ankle
And I notice your breathing getting heavy
Your speech short of steady
It's obvious you're ready
Skip the elevator
Head straight toward the stairs
Lipstick shades on pillowcases
Love and lust together here
But you know I don't have to tell you
It's not just about that, not just about that
And you know
We don't have to prove it
Was never about that, never about that We'll turn the lights back on and straighten up the room
I'm buttoning my shirt, I watch you as you fixed your hair
We stumble downstairs
Can't tell them what has just occurred
Never feeling awkward
But you know I don't have to tell you
It's not just about that, not just about that
You know
We don't have to prove it
Was never about that, never about that
But you know I don't have to tell you
It's not just about that, not just about that
And you know
We don't have to prove it
Was never about that, never about that
And you know I don't have to tell you
It's not just about that, not just about that
You know
We don't have to prove it
Was never about that, never about that
Never about that, never about that
Never about that, never about that
