"You Got It"

Anything you ever asked from me
You got it, yeah you got it Too much and now you think that you'd be better off without
The next one that you tease will probably be just like me
But with the new-ness that you crave
So you can feel like you are who you claim to be

Every piece of myself I have given to you, I'm taking back
I'm shameless now

My arms wrapped tight around your neck
Won't change your mind until you're suffocating, separating
Oh she never ever loved me
She never really lived
My ears can't even hear it

Every piece of myself I have given to you, I'm taking
I'm shameless now

Every piece of myself I have given to you, I'm taking
I'm shameless
Every piece of myself I have given to you, I'm taking
back
I'm shameless now

(Every piece of myself)
I'm shameless now
(Every piece of myself)
I'm shameless
