You may talk
You may walk
But don't start any trouble kid

You don't mess
With the best
So don't question the way you live

Have a cookie and some television
Stay put until the next collision

They're your voice
So believe
You've no choice but to deal with it

Here come the big guns
Speaking for all the young ones
They make the world go 'round
You better abide just step aside cause

Here come the big guns
The gentlemen with the sharp tongues
Heads high my young allies
Make some noise now raise your voice and scream

Take the fame
Not the blame
Have no shame - mr know it all's

Is it fair
Wil you care

or be there if disaster calls

Same story but a new ambition
Another month another manic mission

Just relax
Matter fact
Get on back to the drawing board

Here come the big guns

Speaking for all the young ones
They make the world go 'round
You better abide just step aside cause

Here come the big guns
The gentlemen with the sharp tongues
Heads high my young allies
Make some noise now raise your voice and scream

What do you know man
Get with the program
The real truth's coming from the youth

Check what I'm singing
Respect our opinion
Pie in the sky - we don't buy that anymore

(CHORUS)
