Nights keep on falling
Dreamers dream away
Days keep on dawning
You never know what fortune throws your way

Feeling safe & sound - you walk around without a care
'Til something knocks you down from out of nowhere....hello there...

That's life - it's bag of trix
That's life - whatta magic mix
That's life - you dunno what you get

That's life - full of mystery
That's life - ces't la vie
That's life - and what will be will be

Time waits for no one
That much is understood
The future's wide open
Just take a look in life's unwritten book

Hangin by a thread , you're on the edge of your defeat

When luck comes popping up and in a heartbeat - you're on easy street

That's life - it's bag of trix
That's life - whatta magic mix
That's life - you dunno what you get

That's life - full of mystery
That's life - sing ces't la vie

You can plan a pretty picnic, you can pick the perfect time
But you can't expect the weather to be fine
And that applies to you and I, and all of us around the globe
We dunno what tomorrow holds, that's the beauty of it all

(CHORUS)
