You gave me that look across the table

At dinnertime

Your toes caress my ankle

And I notice your breathing getting heavy

Your speech short of steady

It's obvious you're ready
Skip the elevator

Head straight toward the stairs

Lipstick shades on pillowcases

Love and lust together here
But you know

I don't have to tell you

It's not just about that, not just about that
And you know

We don't have to prove it

Was never about that, never about that
We'll turn the lights back on and straighten up the room

I'm buttoning my shirt, I watch you as you fixed your hair

We stumble downstairs

Can't tell them what has just occurred

Never feeling awkward
But you know
I don't have to tell you

It's not just about that, not just about that

You know

We don't have to prove it

Was never about that, never about that
But you know

I don't have to tell you

It's not just about that, not just about that
And you know

We don't have to prove it

Was never about that, never about that
And you know

I don't have to tell you

It's not just about that, not just about that
You know

We don't have to prove it

Was never about that, never about that
Never about that, never about that

Never about that, never about that
