["Sing along. Strum along. Bump ahead."]

I've been miles from nowhere, crossed and doubled back
Time is a healer and I've done my time, 'cos I ain't seen love like that

I've seen the light of freedom, dim and fade to black So many faces, but no one compares, no I ain't seen love like that

And I've got people tellin' me to let her go, don't let it turn you around Tomorrow's coming and you'll never know, the one that you lost may be found

I believe in justice, I wonder where she's at It feels like a lifetime and it just ain't fair No I ain't seen love like that

And I've got people tellin' me to let her go, that girl is bringing you down Tomorrow's coming and you'll never know, the love that you lost may be found

(Solo)

You know that people tell me to let her go, don't let it
turn you around
Tomorrow's coming and you'll never know, the love
that you lost may be found

I've been miles from nowhere, crossed and doubled
Time is a healer and I've done my time, no I ain't seen love like that

No I ain't seen love like that - so many faces Ain't seen love like that - and no one compares

I ain't seen love like that Ain't seen love like that - ain't seen love Ain't seen love like that - no, no I ain't
