stompin' on the bass pedals."]

Mr. Gone

You feel a tap upon your shoulder, turn around there's no one there

Is your mind just getting older, are you whispering a prayer

When you feel you're someone else, in the crowd all by yourself

Chorus:

(Mr. Gone) love [choice/joys] and destiny knocked on your door, you were gone

(Mr. Gone) sold your world to keep it free, are you lonely tonight Mr. Gone

Twist your heart up over nothing, your girl is working double time

Intuition has misled you, she's put lightbulbs overdrive

When you feel you're someone else, in the crowd all by

(chorus)

Where's your love? Where's your life? Get your head out of the sand

Free your mind, free your soul, an open heart will understand

Yeah, one more, everything is good

(Mr. Gone) oohoo, oh yeah, we need love

(Mr. Gone) oh yeah, we're gonna make a change, alright

(chorus)

(Mr. Gone) loser personality, when all of your rights turn to wrong

(Mr. Gone) blinded by the things you see, are you
lonely tonight, Mr. Gone
