["We love to watch Pat do this intro. It kind of looks like he's juggling and uses the cowbell (our favorite drum)."]

She's sinkin' like a dashboard doll, cool, cruel and calculated

Beauty in the back seat, she runs hot, mean too cold

She's wicked with a mean streak, a timebomb tickin' away

Here comes trouble, right on the double, with a split personality

Heaven knows there's hell to pay

Never have I seen such an attitude, don't shoot, it's only me babe!

Chorus:

Watch what you might say and how you say it, she's so temperamental

Don't turn your back on a good little girl like that

She's oh so twisted (she's so) temperamental

Just a little bit temperamental

One minute she's an innocent child, sweet taste of her emotion

Anxious with a strange twist, man it's all worthwhile

Mad look, comin' on strong, ready to meet it halfway home

Heartbreaker, time to meet the maker, 'cause the mice have all gone

Heaven knows there's hell to pay

Never have I seen such an attitude, don't shoot, it's only me babe!

(chorus)

Just a little bit whacked

(Solo)

Heaven knows there's hell to pay

Never have I seen such an attitude, don't shoot!

Don't shoot, it's only me baby!

(chorus)

You better - (chorus)

Just a little bit temperamental

Just a little bit whacked

[Half a wasted life willing to sleep a bite]

Girls like this you just gotta treat right

They just cut you back down to size - ain't that right, kid

Hey, hey, yeah yeah, she's so temperamental... (to fade)
