I've been awake lying on my bed
Thinking of your pretty cute face
It's something inside of you
Is in the pictures that you send
I saw it in you through your friends
I don't lie is the truth

Something is missing something is gone
Sometimes I miss you on the phone
I'm feeling like a fool
Outside is raining is a storm
I'm thinking in the things we've done
Things we just say were cool

-Chorus-

But stopping myself I see all that happened before
So trying harder I know I will love you more and more

No matter how hard we can fight
Our destination said it right
You're red and I am blue
My heart is pumping it almost flew
I feel my chest fighting kung fu
I swear its all for you

But stopping myself I see all that happened before
So trying harder I know I will love you more and more

-Solo-

And looking for
Our time before
I found out even more
I have a way
To feel the same
Of missing you everyday

Stopping myself I see all that happened before
So trying harder I know I will love you more and more

No matter how hard we can fight
Our destination said it right

You're red and I am blue
My heart is pumping it almost flew
I feel my chest fighting kung fu
I swear its all for you
I swear its all for you
I swear its all for you
