Time, you needed time
Out of the mainstream
Out on your own
Alone, to find yourself somehow
So I'm a bit surprised you lately
Beside a brand new baby
Well if it makes you happy now

I guess that's great
I guess you're not mine
Brand new baby beside you now
Oh, yeah
I guess that's great
You don't see me cryin'
And there's nobody to slow you down
Oh, yeah

If you're feeling sorry, try to contain it
You don't need to save me
Don't waste your pity anyhow
And you might like to believe I'm devastated
To see you with your lovin' baby
Well if it makes you happy now

I guess that's great
I guess you're not mine
Brand new baby beside you now
Oh, yeah
I guess that's great
You don't see me cryin'
And there's nobody to slow you down
Oh, yeah

Seen you with your brand new baby
Sure, it phases me just to hear you laughing
Makes me just a little crazy
But I guess it's a great thing
If it makes you happy now
