"Eyes Of The Lord"

For the ways of men are before the eyes of the Lord
Who gives to each the fruit of his deeds
No creature is veiled from his sight
No shadow where evil may hide
All things are open, all things will be answered
For nothing is hidden from the eyes of the Lord.

Each man must choose his way
In the evil of this present age:
The road to life - the narrow gate -
Or follow the path of cain.
For each work the Lord has found
He'll require that man give account
For those who act in hate or love
Will answer to Him, every one.
