"The Joy Set Before Me"

Verse 1

I'm bunkered down and waiting out the night
The last of the perfume has finally dried
The house lays silently with every heart at rest
While mine violently pound against my chest

Verse 2

I'm bunkered down and waiting out tonight
This just one more meal before goodbyes
The house is solemn but no one understands
The final hours slipping through our grasp

Oh, ohh (4x)

Chorus

What a joy set before me
I will endure for the joy set before me (5x)
I will endure

Verse 3

My blood seems to know there are souls to atone
It gives with no concern for it's own
And it will not stop until every drop is spilled
