She knows the pain and suffering
The obedience of the sick
Mentally fragile
To the point of exhaustion
Inner disease is famine
To the outer shell
The sun is gone
From this world
The roses wither and fade
All gone left no trace
Only bruised hands
With dirty face
Gun up to the mouth
Taking her last breath
Before she closes her eyes forever
Embracing the eternal calm with open arms
Slide glass across the wrist
Took her last breath
Before she closes her eyes forever
Embracing the eternal calm with no fear
Swallow fist
False addiction of impure
Take my last breath
Before i close my eyes forever
To embrace the eternal calm
Diseased tears of shame fall from up high
She closes her eyes/she slits her wrists
And slips away
Because tomorrow brings no brighter day
Tranquil bliss invades
Expiring the infection
Excoriation into freedom
Solution
Solution
Failure to recognize on behalf of you
Failure to recognize on behalf of your ignorance
Ignorance
