This is a story I heard down in Wingo Wango, about a little girl called Jenny who got lost in the jungle.
She was brought up by the actual animals who lived in the bush.

These apes got to like her so much they called her
"Jungle Jenny".

Jungle Jenny
raised by gorillas
in the jungle, in the jungle
Got an education in gorilla formation
in the jungle, in the jungle
From the magazine the only ones she'd seen on the cover was Willy and his Walnuts

Chorus:

Jungle Jenny, Jungle Jenny
I need a lot of love and I can't get any Jungle Jenny, Jungle Jenny
I need a lot of love and I can't get any
in the jungle, in the jungle

Saw his face from a different race
in the jungle, in the jungle
Then Jenny knew she had to get through to Willy, and his Walnuts Jenny was a dreamer she took a local steamer looking for Willy and his Walnuts

Meanwhile, deep in the forest, the news spread that Jenny had gone There was a rumble through the jungle and the gorillas, the gorillas all mumbled, they want their baby back through the woods hear them sigh
The apes all stand and sadly cry

Chorus:
In the city
she was a lipstick tester
For Willy
and his Walnuts
But back in the jungle the gorillas all mumble they want Jenny they all want Jenny
