Wherever the rain goes
Leaves gasoline rainbows
On the water, it looks beautiful
But tragic when the waves have parted
If we disappear
Who gets the souvenir?
Or sees the outline of the trees that won't be there
Once the machines have started

I don't wanna wait
Oh, I don't wanna sit and hope
I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so
So prove me wrong
And don't just let it go
Don't wanna watch
So I can tell you, tell you I told you so
Tell you I told you so

It was chemical
Oh, it was magical
And when it hits the light, it pleased the eye
Who knew it could be so fatal?
Yesterday, oh, is miles and miles away
We took a picture to remind us that today we are caught in the middle

Oh, don't wanna wait
Oh, don't wanna sit and hope
I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so
Oh, so prove me wrong
And don't just let this go
Don't wanna watch
So I can tell you, tell you I told you so
Tell you I told you so

I don't wanna wait

I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so
Oh, so prove me wrong
And don't just let this go
Don't wanna watch
So I can tell you, tell you I told you so

Oh, don't wanna wait
Oh, don't wanna sit and hope
I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so
Oh, so prove me wrong
Don't wanna tell you
Not gonna tell you
Tell you I told you so

Don't wanna wait
Don't wanna sit and hope
I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so

Don't wanna wait
I don't wanna tell you
Don't wanna tell you
Tell you I told you so
