And there's a day I see ahead, oh
There's more than a fork in the road
And I took the same thing
And I feel so far from home

And there's a life I see ahead
There's more than a fork in the road
Self-instruction theory of exactly what to do

Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you

My mind's been playing tricks on me

I stumble over something strange
You make me want to want you more
And I took the same thing
And I feel so far from home

And there's a life I see ahead
There's more than a fork in the road
Self-instruction theory of exactly what to do, yeah

Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you
Everyone I see is you

My mind's been playing tricks on me

Everyone I see is you
(Everyone I see is)
Everyone I see is you
(You make me want to want you more)

Everyone I see is you
(My mind's been playing tricks on me, yeah)
And everyone I see is you
(And everyone I see is)

Everyone I see is you
And everyone I see is
Everyone I see is you
And I stumble over something

Everyone I see is you
You make me want to want you more
Everyone I see is you, you
And I can't wait but I will
