This sittin' alone is the newest game to play
I'll be ok cause there's no one around
If broken hearts are the latest things to bare Then I don't care cause I'm the best dressed girl in town

If the passion is to be
Broken hearted and free
Everybody take a look at me
Because I'm not around
I want this weeping to stop,
I'm tired of being on top
Well every one fool of the broken hearted
Just turn your frown

So teardrops are my happy livelong smile
With a new start, I can't stop this cryin'
And if happiness is longing for this kiss
That must mean this: Lord knows I'm dyin'

If the passion is to be
Broken hearted and free
Everybody take a look at me
Because I'm not around
I want this weeping to stop,
I'm tired of being on top
Well every one fool of the broken hearted
Just turn your frown, oh
