The accusations and the blame...
True or false, they seem the same

Filthy fingers rise in rows
And out of shit a flower grows

I'm amazed how damn low people can go
Only by being themselves
Those with hearts of ever-frost
Always know we never lost
Flames rose high...
Not enough to melt the ice
Tiny minds and virtuous whores
A bunch of morons with a cause
Jesus saves?
-We will piss upon your graves!

Three wise men came to the north
On their donkeys they rode forth
Whining I'd committed sins
Moaning on to everything

Still amazed
How a whole trio of men can
Have only two brain cells
Those with hearts of ever-frost
Always know we never lost
Acid rain:urine on your flames

Those with hearts of ever-frost
Always know we never lost
Flames rose high...
Not enough to melt the ice
Tiny minds and virtuous whores
A bunch of morons with a cause
Jesus saves?
-We will piss upon your graves!

Placid rain:urine on your graves
