(music: Tenkula & SENTENCED, words: Jarwa)

think about all the good in your life

- it's only temporary

think about all the positive sides in life

- they never last forever

so drink to forget

and drown all your sorrow

bury your dreams

choose mind refinery

all the tears and the fears and the lies and the cries

and the...

all the tears and the fears and the lies and the cries

and the...

when the light of the chosen has died when the Master is slave to his life

all the tears and the fears and the lies and the cries

and the...

(forget)

all the love and the hate and the hate for you - my love

when the light of the chosen has died

it is time to do something right, for once, goddamned!

so drink to forget

and drown all your sorrow

bury your dreams

and choose Catharsis!

all the tears and the fears and the lies and the cries

and the...

(revenge)

all the hate in the world is hate power to bring you down!

when the light of the chosen has died

it is time to pay back for their crimes
