It feels that your love for me is slowly turning to dust It seems that our union made of iron is starting to rust

I hate life
I hate this shit
I love you and I hate myself
I hate our world and everything in it
I hate loving you
I hate
I hate

Give me a reason to live
one more day
Let me just once more feel your light through the rain

It feels that my love for you is eternal, never-ending but it seems that you're not receiving what I have been sending I love life
I love this shit
I love you and I hate myself
I love our world
and everything in it
I love loving you
I love
I hate

Give me a reason to live
one more day
Let me just once more feel your light trough the rain

Give me a reason to live
one more day
Let me just once more feel your love through the pain
