All these years I've spent fighting the fight Winning my war, showing my might
It was clear to me all the time...
There's no battle like that of life

refrain:

Give me war
I will give you hell

I'm the warrior of life, I know the reaper by name
I was born one foot in grave
I'm the warrior of life and my blood's running cold
I see pain wherever I go

I've stood up everyone and everything
And walked against the wind
So it is and so it will be
It is the only way... for me

refrain

I'm the warrior of life, I know the reaper by name
I was born one foot in grave
I'm the warrior of life and my blood's running cold
I see pain wherever I go (2x)
