My, my, my, I've got so much to say
I saw the world today,
In your own way, you were right by my side
Like nothing ever changed
But hey, hey, hey, it's good to hear
The sound of your voice in my ear
Oh but please, please, please don't be sad
I know I've been gone for way too long
You bring me home
In your own way, you were right by my side
Like nothing ever changed
But that's what you do
You bring me closer to you
I can't say how long we've been apart
But hey, hey, hey, it's good to hear
The sound of your voice in my ear
Oh but please, please, please don't be sad
I know I've been gone for way too long
You bring me home
You bring me home
You bring me home

And I'm almost in your arms
Just a little too far
You bring me home
You bring me home
And I'm almost in your arms
But I'm just a little too far
Please, please, please don't be sad
I know I've been gone for way too long
But hey, hey, hey it's good to hear
The sound of your voice in my ear
But please, please, please don't be sad
I know I've been gone for way too long
For way too long
For way too long
For way too long
You bring me home
You bring me home
You bring me home
