cause mr. dolly hold your head up high he lost is mind he will never be alright now prays his grace that you will never find he leaves it perfect in your mind fraying so long, taking so long, your wasting time now the only thing you want is to get high wating so long, holding the phone to be your christ

i rappd here head but se never seems to die he traded all his kingdom for no price now make his way so you won't meet his side he nows if there is something left to find

circus around you must be creature of the night i now your stronger to be falling from your eyes
