All this talk of living
Drives me crazy
Making something, I don't nothing
Baby, it's hard, so hard

I would like to wear your face for an evening
You are always staying
I'm always leaving
And baby I'm gone

And I'm saying let me out of this silent soul

I can't love myself
But I can be myself
Can be no one else
Cause in the end, we are the ones we are
And I just can't love myself
So how could you my friend
Guess I can't pretend, but in the end
We are the ones we are
And I just can't love myself

I'm the kind of thing you don't remember
Like a rainy day and it's september
I'm gone, baby I'm gone
People never hear me, my words are silent
When I try to sing it
It sounds like a siren
Baby, it's hard

And I'm saying let me out of this lonely life

I can't love myself
But I can be myself
Can be no one else
Cause in the end, we are the ones we are
And I just can't love myself
So how could you my friend
Guess I can't pretend, but in the end
We are the ones we are

Whatever you say
I'm not gonna change
Whatever you see today
Will stay the same

I can't love myself
But I can be myself
Can be no one else
Cause in the end, we are the ones we are

I can't love myself
But I can be myself
Can be no one else
Cause in the end, we are the ones we are
And I just can't love myself
So how could you my friend
Guess I can't pretend, but in the end
We are the ones we are

And I just can't love myself
