"Irritating Lover"

Visit "Irritating Lover" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm a quiet guy, I live within all reasons
But they say that I...
Am not being careful when I'm played with
So to take me for a ride
Is not for you, young girl
'cos I see right through when you lie
I got you once I can get you twice
Ha-ha ... So you don't believe that
So you are ready to play?
Then let it start, let it start
I feel like time is fading out
Now you've played your part
It's like a bomb exploding
Guess it's your lover
You come around with him
Your irritating lover
I think you call him Jim or Tim or Phil
Ahh ... This is gonna stop!
Well I guess I can turn away
But I warn you now
You have to be careful when you play
Take a good look up at the blue sky
And breathe
And I will take away
That look in your eyes
I want them to cry, cry, cry
Yes I will take away
That look in your eyes
Cos I want this stopped
So please stop
I guess It's your lover
You come around with him
Your irritating lover
I think you call him Bob or Steve or Finn
Ahh ... This is gonna stop
