

September When "I Believe In You"

When the rain's no longer water and the sunlight can't break through
I turn away and leave it all to you
'cos you always sound so sure and I know you never lie
There is no doubt
There is no wonder why
I believe in you
If there were no sky above me
Then there might be no blue
I turn away and leave it all to you
It still makes me so ashamed
I try to say something about the weather
I believe in you
I believe in you
I see the cost of life, is built up on giving
It takes a lifetime in the meantime Live your life right ... Then die
