"Significance"

Visit "Significance" on MotoLyrics.com

You are my significance, I'm insignificant
You created the heavens, You created me
As if that wasn't enough, You died

You saved me, though not by what I've done
You made me and heir by Your blood
How justly, You proved Your perfect love
You are Jesus the Christ, my hope for life

You are my innocence, You are my righteousness
You created the cross, and authored Your death
Where would I be without Your love

I don't deserve this, no I never could have earned this
But I gladly accept the riches of Your grace
I love you because You first loved me
