"You Are I Am"

Before we knew love, You were Before we knew beauty, You were Before we could even know the greatness of Your Truth
You stood before all the same, the same

When we feel there's no hope, You are
When we forget You're near, You are
When we chase the created trading truth for a lie
You patiently proved Your worth unchanged, unchanged

You are I am
In fear we bow before Your name
With You there's no end
You will always be and have always been
You are I am

After our final breath, You will be After all has stopped, You will be
After our last song with voices silenced
You sit on Your throne supreme, supreme
