Stuck in the ground
Shopping for support, nothing can be found
The mind floats 'round
Crashing back and forth, never really stopping

Turn around and try to face yourself
You may think it looks like someone else

Look from outside they don't heal
I'm passing through shaking hands
Eyeless, shit faced, they're not real
Mud in the brain, all insane

Turn around and try to face yourself
You may think it looks like someone else

Raw display of pain
No shelter, refugee
No shelter, refugee

Floaters in mud

Turn around and try to face yourself
You may think it looks like someone else

Turn around and face yourself
Turn around and face yourself
Turn around and face yourself
Turn around and face yourself
