Remember back when I met you was a big city boy with the small town blues this place seemed so small to me I was used to the boulevard when I saw you I fell so hard now I never wanna leave yeah I could stay forever we got moon light

all night
Lord I'll pray on the next star I see tonight to never lose this thing I've found with you by my side

I can do without the city lights
I fly so high when you're around that my feet dont touch the ground

Things I've done and the places I've been just dont compare to the love I'm in it beats all I've ever seen

If you'd a told me a few years back I'd be still livin here in this place I'm at I said you're living in a dream but now I'll stay forever we've got moon light

all night
Lord I pray on the next star I see tonight and never loose this thing I've found

with you by my side
I can do without the city lights
that my feet dont touch the ground yeah I'm stayin forever we've got moon light

all night
Lord I pray on the next star I see tonight
and never loose this thing I've found

with you by my side
I can do without the city lights
that my feet dont touch the ground

No my feet dont touch the ground (x2)
