No it ain't the whiskey talkin'
It ain't the shinin' of the moon
She don't even know it's comin'
She's gonna meet her maker soon

Came home tonight a little early
I saw him leavin' from the house
I followed him with my pistol
Yeah, he's with his maker now

Yeah we're gonna meet the maker
With this pain, the end can't come too soon
Now I'm comin' for you baby
'Cause you're gonna meet the maker, too

As I step into the bedroom
I see you lyin' fast asleep
Hope you said your prayers
Before you laid down
That the Lord your soul to keep

Yeah we're gonna meet the maker
With this pain, the end can't come too soon
I'll be comin' right behind you
'Cause I'm gonna meet the maker, too

Yeah we're gonna meet the maker
With this pain, the end can't come too soon
Maybe there we'll be together
'Cause we're gonna meet the maker
We're gonna meet the maker
We're gonna meet the maker soon
