[Chorus: Chamillionaire singing]
Big Swangaz and Vouges
Them 20 inches sittin low
We Ball 24-7 all that we know
Screens and neon lights gon show
When my trunk unlock pop and show
Ya already know
Paint drippin off the door
Not Engaged with no lady, fall in love with em no!
You may think I'm crazy never knew this type of love before I'm love with my foreign, yes I'm married to my dough....
I'm in love with my money... mmmm

[Chamillionaire]
You can catch me squeezing grain
Sittin crooked on D's and swangz Color changin lizard he's insane
Ya womans missing then he's to blame Charge it to the game keep the change
Most marriages blossom and die...
When its over I'm tellin her bye
But she acts like I'm tellin a lie While you fallin in love with a she...
I rather be thug than a G
Could you see me in a car that rhymes with rent me and starts with a B Could you see a Bentley Parked in the crunkest spot in ya hood Candy coat on top of the hood
And my fist on top of the wood Sparkling good say you ain't after my change I don't believe ya
If a skeezer ask me to feed her
With my visa then I'm gon leave her Koopa don't want ya koopa don't need ya
{ But I Love You } Thats sweet
I rather be walkin on glass feet
With leather up under my ass cheeks
Ain't like I changed over night

Been actin like this since last week Better Ask P my money stretched like an athlete at a track meet Seen him last week in a Jag Jeep
{ But they don't even make them yet cuzin } Ok I'm lyin I don't know what it was but I swear that boi was sittin on buttons
I know you want a relationship with a balla but no thanx
I'd rather be shining my twanks
You must think this is a bank but it ain't money increase and never would shink hoes that be dikin even be fightin.... when I pull up on 20 inch titans cuz I got what them girls be likin them uhh...

[Chorus: Chamillionaire singing]
Big Swangaz and Vouges
Them 20 inches sittin low
We Ball 24's 7's all that we know
Screens and neon lights gon show
When my trunk unlock pop and show
Ya already know

Not Engaged with no lady, fall in love with em no!
You may think I'm crazy never knew this type of love

[Paul Wall]
Hold on hold up a second man
I never mack to a metro dame
You better respect the game
See my gecko chain and correct ya brain
I love my car like it was my girlfriend I like to carress
the grain Fondled the wheel and I got aroused swung in the ditch and I wrecked the frame Broke up with my foreign car and fell in love with my cadillac
The Ringling Brothers enquired to how my trunk turns flips like an acrobat I act a rat, cuz I'm from the gutter ya girl stutter when I pull up next to ya You been with the girl 6 months Paul Wall is the reason she won't give sex to ya Why all that plex in ya
Cuz a german company made my rims
My big body's pregant with twins I'm bout to induce a baby benz

Ya car was fly in the hood but my candy paint just wet ya flames
I'm sittin on 22 inch baby sitters babelous threaten ya name Forgot to change the diaper so when I crept in the lane I left a stain Everytime it rains, paint drips and makes a mess and I get the blame
My TV's are the pet I train I can make em roll over and play dead
My car was blue on the freeway but when I stopped at the light it changed to red You betta re arrange ya head thinkin I trick my cash to a broad...
Go ahead and ask ya broad I got more green than the grass in a yard
And thats so raw It ain't hard for me to get the class to applaud
I shine like a blasting star, glass in m car more blacker than tar

[Chorus: Chamillionaire singing 3X]

Big Swangaz and Vouges
Them 20 inches sittin low
We Ball 24's 7's all that we know
Screens and neon lights gon show
When my trunk unlock pop and show
Ya already know
Paint drippin off the door
Not Engaged with no lady, fall in love with em no!
