Baby please do you remember when
Would you do it again
And do you look at the photographs
Is you're life what you want it to be
Is there something you see
That can make you just smile and laugh

And all the cards return to sender
Now my flowers on the floor
It didn't look like I'd surrender
But what was I looking for

Turn back now maybe then you will see
The people we used to be
And how we had a good time
I know I was wrong
But I knew all along that you would see before long
I was over the border line

And all the cards return to sender
Now the writings on the wall
It didn't look like I'd surrender
But what was I looking for

And all the cards return to sender
Have you're tears begun to fall
It didn't look like I'd surrender
But what was I looking for

Baby please do you remember when
Would you do it again
And do you look at the photographs
