My world it's turned
Upside down
I'm lost since
You're not around
All I had it's gone
It's gone away so fast
I need to know, oh

I'm Calling you, hello, hello
Can you hear my voice that's shaking?
Can you see the chance I'm taking?

My dreams have gone
All at once
Imagine, you're here
In my arms
All I had it's gone
It's gone away so fast
I need to know, oh

I'm Calling you, hello, hello
Can you hear my voice that's shaking
Can you see the chance I'm taking?
I'm calling you, I need to know
Everywhere I go it's you
What am I supposed to do -- oh!
